

110TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. RES. 77

Expressing support for the Transitional Federal Government of the Somali Republic.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 12, 2007

Mr. INHOFE (for himself and Mr. BROWNBACK) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

RESOLUTION

Expressing support for the Transitional Federal Government of the Somali Republic.

Whereas, after the collapse of the Somali government in 1991, the main judicial system in Somalia devolved into a system of sharia-based Islamic courts, which have increased their power to include security and enforcement functions;

Whereas, in 2000, the courts consolidated to form the Islamic Courts Union (ICU), which came into conflict with secular warlords in the capitol city of Mogadishu by asserting its ever increasing power;

Whereas the ICU is known to have links to Al-Qaeda and has provided a safe haven for members of Al-Qaeda;

Whereas, by June 2006, ICU forces controlled Mogadishu and much of southern Somalia, creating a potential haven for Islamic terrorists;

Whereas, in 2004, the Transitional Federal Government of the Somali Republic (TFG) was formed in Kenya;

Whereas, in 2006, the TFG army joined forces with the army of the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia to sweep the ICU from power and, after a string of swift military victories, enter Mogadishu; and

Whereas the current situation is still volatile, creating a short window of opportunity to positively affect Somalia's stability and future status:

Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate that—

2 (1) the Senate expresses its support for the
3 Transitional Federal Government of the Somali Re-
4 public;

5 (2) the Senate recognizes Ethiopia, particularly
6 Prime Minister Meles, and Kenya for the noble ef-
7 forts aimed toward pursuing peace in Somalia and
8 support for the United States in the War on Terror;

9 (3) the United States should support and push
10 efforts for serious multi-party talks aimed at estab-
11 lishing a national unity government in Somalia;

12 (4) the United States should take several meas-
13 ures, at an appropriate time, to promote stability;

1 (5) assistance from the United States will bet-
2 ter equip the TFG to face the challenges of restoring
3 peace to this war-torn country;

4 (6) the United States should promote foreign
5 investment in Somalia and facilitate financial and
6 technical assistance to the TFG; and

7 (7) the United States should aid the TFG to—

8 (A) locate and free Somali-owned financial
9 assets throughout the world;

10 (B) solicit support from other friendly
11 countries; and

12 (C) encourage nongovernmental organiza-
13 tions to commit more resources and projects to 14 Somalia.
